September 18, 2009

SPECIAL ISSUE:

New Kellogg Library

The UCC Libraries are pleased to announce the opening of the new state-of-the-art Elizabeth I. Kellogg Library on the first floor of the Elizabeth I. Kellogg Building on the Elizabeth Campus.

The new library offers an Information Commons with 45 computers, a 28 seat Information Literacy classroom designed for hands-on learning, student group-study rooms, comfortable seating, study tables and carrels, Wifi, a media area, and more!

The UCC Libraries welcome the College community to this stunning new academic space!
