Timely Topics Speaker Series in June

The Cranford Campus will be the site of the Union County College Alumni Association's new program – the "Timely Topics Speaker Series". Two stimulating and thought-provoking lectures will be given at 8 PM on two Wednesday evenings - June 5 & June 19, 2002. Each program is free and will be followed by a reception. Everyone is welcome and invited to attend.

Can society test your blood, your genes and your intelligence, in the name of the common good? Dr. Helen G. Brudner will speak on Challenges to Privacy and the Constitution on June 5 in the Faculty / Staff Dining Room, Campus Center. She will discuss the possible impact of modern technology, biotechnology, educational technology and environmental concerns on individual rights of privacy.

Associate Director of the School of History, Political & International Studies at Fairleigh Dickinson University in Teaneck, NJ, Dr. Brudner writes and lectures extensively on the Constitution, Privacy and Presidential Power.

The second lecture on June 19th will examine how various ethnic groups struggle to become American while maintaining their identity and integrity. Dr. Michael Aaron Rockland's topic is Ethnicity in America. He will show excerpts from his PBS documentary filmed on Ellis Island and discuss how the "melting pot" has been replaced as a metaphor for America by "salad bowl" or "the mosaic". This event will be in the Main Lecture Hall, Nomahegan Building.

Dr. Rockland is Professor and Chair of the American Studies Department at Rutgers University in New Brunswick, NJ. He has chaired the Commission on Ethnic and Race Relations at Rutgers, and written nine books. His latest book is The Jews of New Jersey: A Pictorial History.

Betty Bradley, '45 of Watchung is Chair of this program, which is in cooperation with the New Jersey Council for the Humanities, a state partner of the National Endowment for the Humanities.

UCC's PRESIDENT HONORED AS A "CEO OF THE YEAR"

The Association of Community College Trustees has chosen Dr. Thomas H. Brown as the 2002 Northeast Regional Chief Executive Officer. The Northeast region includes 11 states from Maine to New Jersey and west to Pennsylvania, the District of Columbia, and four Canadian provinces. Dr. Brown, who has been President since 1990, will receive this prestigious award in June at a conference in Las Vegas.

Theater Project Entertainments

COURTING A LA CHEKHOV.

Guests at the UCC Foundation's Donor Thank You reception in March were treated to a delightful production of Anton Chekhov's farce, "The Proposal". Talented actors from the Theater Project at Union County College are (l. to r.) Debbie Pires. Andre deSandies (both Professors in the Institute for Intensive English), and Gary Glor.

LEGACY DINNER.

Smiles and chuckles filled the Faculty/Staff dining room as Theater Project actors performed Christopher Durang's "For Whom the Southern Belle Tolls" (a satire on Tennessee Williams' "The Glass Menagerie") for those special donors who have made planned gifts to the College. In the audience were (l. to r.) John Jacobson, Ethel Heim, Danny Covine, Louise Yohalem, and Suzanne Covine.

From the Director

Dear Friends,

UCC's alumni are great! As I reflect on my five years working with alumni at Union County College, I am struck by the fervent testimonials I've heard about how they value the education received here. Many former students recall a professor who turned them on to a subject, or who taught them how to look at life in a different way.

Whether you attended Union County Junior College (Ucey Jucey), Union Junior College, Union College, or Union County College, you have a right to be proud of this college, and of its long tradition of providing high quality affordable higher education.

The UCC Alumni Association was formed informally at a dinner in 1937; the late President Kenneth MacKay, Professor Harold Gulbergh ("Gully") and Professor Hermann J. Bielefeld were elected "faculty sponsors for life". The first dues were fifty cents! *

Today's Union County College Alumni Association and its dedicated Board under President Naomi Mirlocca, '57 make a great group. This year they initiated two events for the community – the first Crystal Ball Room – Your Psychic & Holistic Adventure in the fall, and the Timely Topics Speaker Series in June. The annual sale of Entertainment Books coordinated by the tireless Suzanne Skillin Covine, '58 was very successful.

The revised 2001 Bylaws instituted $125 Lifetime Membership dues and there are now seven Lifetime Members – Ellen Berman, '90, Charles D. Hinton, '01, Alfred G. Hoerrner, '49, Alberta Machese, '95, Sharon R. Rossman, '81, Roger H. Taylor, '68, and A. L. Vorselen, '49.

The UCC Alumni Association is a separate nonprofit group that connects alumni with each other and with the College. Members raise funds for the Alumni Association Scholarship Fund, and also generously support all the special events of the UCC Foundation. All graduates and former students with 30 credits or more are welcome to join — send in the form on the last page, and also "stay in touch" by sharing your news.

Best wishes for a healthy and happy summer.

CLARA'S DIARY

The dramatic reading of Clara Kramer's diary mesmerized the audience in the Roy Smith Theater. Written during the 20 months she spent hiding in a bunker as a teenager in Zolkiew, Poland during the Holocaust, the diary describes both the tragic and the mundane aspects of her family's ordeal as they tried to escape detection from the Nazis. There was not a dry eye in the house as the story of her young sister's bravery and brutal murder unfolded.

Clara, who lives with her husband, Sol, in Elizabeth, graciously agreed to allow her diary to be adapted by the Theater Project at Union County College for UCC's second annual Overcoming Hatred / Creating Community program, held February 26-28, 2002. Zoya Bromberg masterfully met the challenge of selecting excerpts from the Diary of Clara Kramer and molding them into a theatrical piece. Kate Creegan directed and Debbie Pires and Lisa Albert portrayed Clara as a young girl and as an adult.

Mrs. Kramer, who is President of the Holocaust Resource Foundation at Kean University, has given an autographed copy of her diary to the Union County College Library. So that it can reach more people, the dramatic reading will be repeated next year during Overcoming Hatred / Creating Community.

A WONDERFUL LEGACY. Because of the generosity of Arthur Geilfuss of Union, NJ, every year two UCC students who have earned 24 credits and have a 3.0 GPA or better will receive a scholarship award. Mr. Geilfuss valued education, and continued his own through LIFE (Learning is Forever) classes at UCC. Through his will he created two $25,000 memorial scholarship endowments, one named for himself and one for his mother, Emma Geilfuss. The first scholarships will be awarded for the 2002 fall semester. Arthur Geilfuss died in February 2001, but his memory will live on at Union County College.

DID YOU KNOW?

... that since 1998, Colombia, Haiti, Poland and Peru have been "home" to the most UCC students studying ESL -English as a Second Language? This year students came from 87 foreign nations and Puerto Rico.

... that UCC's nationally recognized athletic program offers men's soccer, basketball and baseball, women's basketball and co-ed golf? Admission to all home games is free.

... that endowed scholarships with the Union County College Foundation will be awarded each year forever? The donor names his or her scholarship. In 2001-2002, 139 students benefited from endowed scholarships.

College For Teens -A Different Head Start

Teenagers have hands-on opportunities to create career and educational pathways that will lead to economically satisfying and productive lives in UCC's College for Teens program.

Students in grades 8 – 12 take special core courses in their choice of discipline, develop leadership abilities and the skills necessary to set career and academic goals and to find viable pathways to reach their goals. The program targets the motivated "C" level student who does not normally have an opportunity for a special program.

The first students attended four days a week for three-weeks in the summer of 2001 on the Plainfield a program on the Elizabeth campus, and thanks to funding from the Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders, this summer (July 31 – August 21) there Teens program serving 115 9th to 12th graders from all 23 school districts. Students can take courses in finance and investing, science in the pharmaceutical industry, computer and graphic arts for web design, information technology/networking, and applied mathematics. In a leadership skills workshop they will learn about communication, time management, and conflict resolution.

College for Teens was offered during the spring

Campus. Now there is also will be a Cranford College for semester on Saturdays for six weeks, and will be offered in Fall 2002 on Saturdays in Elizabeth and Plainfield.

Generous financial support has made this innovative program of the Union County College Division of Economic Development and Continuing Education possible.

Funders include: Fleet Foundation and Aventis Pharmaceuticals, Infineum USA LLP, The Merck Company Foundation, Richmond County Savings Foundation, Schering-Plough Corporation, SI Bank and Trust Foundation, the Standish Foundation and Verizon, with additional support from the Plainfield Board of Education, the Elizabeth Board of Education, and the Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders.

"SUPER COP"

Marion Steffens Menzer, '47 gave a fascinating talk about her father, Gustav Steffens, at the April 8th Alumni Association meeting. She is holding her drawing of the fingerprint-matching machine he devised. A career police officer, he organized a "Crime Club" of scientists, dentists and technicians who volunteered their time and secured donated equipment so they could solve crimes. The forensic laboratory he created in his Elizabeth home in the '20s was unique, attracting J. Edgar Hoover and visitors from around the world. Capt. Steffens, who died in 1965, is credited with some other Union County firsts - the first Police Reserves, Alcoholics Anonymous groups, and recreation clubs for boys and girls.
