2017-2018 Identity and Statement of Educational Purpose

Your 2017 - 2018 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. The law states that before awarding Federal Student Aid, we may ask you to confirm the information you reported on your FAFSA. To verify that you provided correct information, we will compare your FAFSA with the information on this institutional verification document and with other required documents. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may need to be corrected. You and a parent whose information was reported on the FAFSA must complete and sign this institutional verification document, attach any required documents, and submit the form and other required documents to us. We may ask for additional information, upon review of this document. If you have questions about verification, contact us as soon as possible so that your financial aid will not be delayed.

High School Completion Status

- A. If required, please provide one of the following documents to indicate the student's High School completion status when you begin college in 2017-2018:

Acceptable Documentation

A copy of your high school diploma.

A copy of a "secondary school leaving certificate" or similar document from a foreign country.

A copy of your final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.

A State certificate or transcript received by a student after the student passed a State-authorized examination that the State recognizes as the equivalent of a high school diploma (GED test, HiSET, TASC, or other State-authorized examination).

An academic transcript that indicates that you successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit towards a Bachelor's degree.

A copy of the credential if you were home schooled in a State where State law requires you to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschooling (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent).

A copy of the credential if you were homeschooled in a State where State law does not require you to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschooling (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript, or the equivalent, signed by your parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses you completed and includes a statement that the student successfully completed a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.

No federal, state, or institutional financial aid will be awarded to you until the verification process is complete.

Union County College does not discriminate and prohibits discrimination, as required by state and/or federal law, in all programs and activities, including employment and access to its career and technical programs.

Union County College is accredited by The Middle States Commission on Higher Education.
